WAS A REGULAR "SCOOP!"

"They Have Arrested the Newport Murderer at the Depot!"

This was the welcome tidings that ambled into THE LEDGER news foundry last afternoon, the News Editor, in his haste to dispatch a messenger to Corral the "murderer," Forgetting to thank the Clever Informant.

"Gimme 4¢ and I'll tell you!"

"Hello!"

"Hello, is that the P. D. Q. Depot?"

"Yes."

"Have you a murderer down there?"

"Not yet, but I've got him."

And away went the Nozer for News; and when he came back at the end of two hours and an eighth here's what he said:

"Somebody somewhere saw a colored man who carried a gun around sometimes and who was somewhat on his way to place somewhere, and it was a dead sure shot that he was the man that was 'wanted' by somebody somewhere for something; but they haven't got him yet."

"Moral—Don't believe anything you hear—and only."

Elder Buckingham, who was personally acquainted with President McKinley, delivered the address at the Memorial Services held at Washington Thursday evening.

A TRIP TO CINCINNATI IS NOT NECESSARY!

To procure the kind of footwear suitable for a well-dressed woman. Some complain that proper lasts, mode, cut and the proper weight for street and house shoes are found wanting in the houses here. This may, in a measure, have been true in the past; it is not so at present. A casual inspection of the line carried by us will convince the most fastidious that they can procure, right at home, minus the cost of transportation to the city, the same shoes to be found there.

We think we are at least entitled to the consideration of those who purchase shoes, and ask that you inspect our stock before going out of town for what is to be had here at home.

Kentucky's Disgrace

GOEBELISM YET RAMPANT.

New York View of the Situation in This State.

UREY WOODSON'S DRASIC PLAN!

New York Tribune
Times has apparently done little to erase the stain left by William Goebel's sinister career in Kentucky life and Kentucky politics. After Goebel's tragic and his spirit of recklessness and violence still dominates the political party whose traditions he outraged and whose honor he tarnished in the mad pursuit of his own selfish ends. It was to be hoped that the tragedy at Frankfort would force a more moral consideration of the excesses of partisanship. But, if one is to judge from the utterances of the men on whom the mantle of the Kenton county statesman has fallen, the Democratic organization in Kentucky is still guided by that policy of greed and corruption which prompted the infamous theft a year and a half ago of the Governorship and most of the minor state offices.

The Hon. Urey Woodson, one of Mr. Goebel's lieutenants, who represents Kentucky on the Democratic National Committee, recently threw some instructive light on the present spirit and motives of the Goebel party. Like other advocates of force and fraud in politics, Mr. Woodson has a wholesome fear of any system of government which the voice of the majority can find a fault with and free exploitation. He is not afraid to avow that the entire gerrymandering of the Legislative Districts will assure uninterrupted Democratic supremacy in the General Assembly, and he therefore advocates an even more partisan apportionment of representation by the next Legislature. Goebelism, political unfairness and political decency bristle in every line of this diabolical avowal:

"Kentucky should be so gerrymandered by the next Legislature that there will not be even a remote idea of a Republican party existing in the next Legislature or anything else. The members of that party have several thousand votes in the state, but we do not know what to do with a state office when they get it, and others, after claiming it, will be compelled to give it up. Therefore, the people have not the time to be troubling with the Republicans of Kentucky."

INDEFINITE PARTIES RESPONSIBLE.

Philadelphian Inquirer.
"How can you explain this tragedy? What harm had President McKinley ever done?" asked the Rev. John H. Willey, in the Nostrand Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church, in Brooklyn; and he answered his own question thus:

"A person of an incendiary character had said he was the enemy of mankind. This is Anarchy. How can a man be the enemy of mankind who, only the day before he was shot, said: 'Our interest is in concord, not in conflict.' Yellow journals and their colleagues, Anarchy, are responsible for this good man's death."

"When the assassin struck the President he struck at the heart of this Republic."

THE TRUTH OF THE MATTER.

"The actual truth of the matter," says the New York Journal of Friday, "is to expose the vileness of political cartoons. The actual truth of the matter is that before this disaster the criticism by the press of both parties had been of unusual severity—but during this period of excitement it is the Democratic press that has been conservative and the Republican press that has been incendiary."

The actual truth of the matter is that the "conservatism" of the Democratic press—at least of that portion which, like The Journal, indulged in vile political cartoons—consisted in refraining from the use of such terms of opprobrium of Dr. Goebel from morning the President was shot down to an assassin. Only that, and nothing more.

Another actual truth of the matter is the newspapers using the vile political cartoons first produced in The Journal are feeling the scorpion lash of public opinion and are cowering because of it.

FIRST OFFICIAL ACT

The New President Signed the Commission of Brig. Gen. James M. Bell.

HE CARRIED OUT MCKINLEY'S WISH

The Cabinet Discussed the Electoral Law Formed by the Cuban Constitutional Convention.

President Roosevelt Discards a Carriage and Walks Briskly and Alone From Executive Mansion to Sister's Home.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The new president held a cabinet meeting Friday after returning from Canton. He was driven from the depot direct to the white house.

The most important topic discussed by the cabinet was the electoral law formed by the Cuban constitutional convention, of which it is understood, the president's advisers expressed their approval.

The first official act performed by the new president was the signing of the commission of Brigadier Gen. M. C. Bell. In accepting Col. Bell to the grade of brigadier general President Roosevelt gives the first proof of his announced intention to carry out the wishes of his predecessor.

About 1:30 o'clock, shortly after the conclusion of the cabinet meeting, President Roosevelt left the white house, accompanied by his sister, the wife of Commander Cowles of the navy, for luncheon.

WILL LIVE IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

Discarding a carriage he walked swiftly and alone. No one had known when he would leave his office, and as he passed briskly out of the grounds of the executive mansion he attracted little notice, though many were recognizing him. He crossed Pennsylvania avenue into Lafayette square and thence up Sixteenth street to his destination. In the course of an hour and a half he returned to the white house, still alone, and still walking.

Secretary Cortelyou put an end to the notion that President Roosevelt would live in some residence removed from the white house. "It will be a pinch to accommodate the whole family here," he said, "but President Harrison's family was about as large and they managed to live here quite comfortably." The president will probably sleep under the white house roof for the first time next Monday night. Mrs. Roosevelt, and the children will probably move in next Wednesday."

RE-COMMISSIONED.

The United States Ambassadors Abroad May Be Supplied With New Credentials.

Washington, Sept. 21.—While it has not decided the question definitely, the state department is inclined to believe that all of the United States ambassadors abroad must be supplied with new credentials. This may be true also of the ambassadors from foreign potentates and republics to Washington, as it is believed, based on the fact that the ambassador represents the person of the sovereign or president. This is not true of the ministers, who, therefore, probably will not be required to be re-commissioned. In the case of a few of the United States ministers who had not been supplied with credentials at the time of President McKinley's demise, new commissions will be required.

MEDALS OF HONOR.

Gen. Arthur Detailed For Duty on the Board to Examine Candidates Recommended.

Milwaukee, Sept. 21.—Major Gen. Arthur MacArthur arrived in Milwaukee yesterday afternoon. He will remain a week or ten days. He has orders from Washington for indefinite duty on the board to examine and report upon brevets, medals of honor, and all awards recommended for officers and soldiers who served in Porto Rico, California and the Philippines. The war department attaches great importance to this, and wants the report ready so that it can be submitted immediately to congress when it meets in December. This duty will keep Gen. MacArthur occupied until he eventually is assigned a command.

UNDER SUSPICION.

Washington Police Looking For a Man Who Asked For the Address of Roosevelt's Sister.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The police are looking for a man who approached several pedestrians and asked the address of President's Roosevelt's sister, the wife of Commander Cowles, or the boy. Several persons were detained by the police. The soldier is described as about 40 years old, speaks with a foreign accent, has light moustache, wears dark clothes and carries a box about eight inches long and three and a half wide.

Gold Coming Over.

London, Sept. 21.—The Statist says that eagles to the value of $100,000 will be shipped from Paris to New York Saturday and that there is no doubt that this consignment will be followed by others.

THE CZAR IN FRANCE.

Gen. De Boisdeffre, formerly Chief of the French Staff, Received by Emperor Nicholas.

Congleton, Sept. 21.—Two interesting incidents of the day were the reception of Emperor Nicholas of Gen. De Boisdeffre, former chief of the French staff, and the baptism of the infant son of the Count de Montebello, French ambassador in Russia. De Boisdeffre was chief of the French staff during the revolution of the year and gained the friendship of the father of Nicholas while French ambassador in St. Petersburg.

Notwithstanding this explanation, the nationalists who only remember the part De Boisdeffre played in the Dreyfus affair excuse the action of the czar by the ear of reflection upon the government, declaring that it is connected with dissatisfaction in the army with Gen. Andre's conduct as minister of war. This, however, is absolutely untrue.

The baptism of the son of the French ambassador took place in the apartments of the czar after his return from the drive. His majesty had promised to act as godfather. The czar expressed an intention to act personally, and the rite of baptism was, therefore, performed by him. Only the czar and czarevitch and members of the family of the czar were present. The child was christened Nicholas after the czar, who said the credo in Russian.

ANARCHIST SYMPATHIZER.

Was Busted Into Unconsciousness on Board an Oyster Sloop and Thrown Overboard.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 21.—The captain of a small oyster sloop which had been held that shortly after President McKinley was assassinated at Bivalve, Md., and secured a place as hand on a sloop. The sloop was fairly well dressed and educated. The day after the president died a passenger on a passing steamer threw talcum powder over the deck. Death. The sloop was secured and while the crew were waiting for him to read them the story he exclaimed: "Good, and Teddy will be the next in a short time."

The crew set upon him and severely injured him, rendering him unconscious. The captain and mate turned him over, but later, when the mast had gone off, the crew picked the unconscious form up and threw it overboard.

OUT FOR A DRIVE.

Mrs. McKinley and Sister Went to West Lawn Cemetery and Entered the Tomb.

Canton, Oct. 21.—Shortly before noon Mrs. McKinley was taken for a drive in company with her sister, Mrs. Anna G. Harrison. They visited the West Lawn cemetery where Mrs. McKinley and the late president often did when in Canton. While they were there the gates and the approach to the vault were temporarily closed. Mrs. McKinley was assisted from the carriage by Dr. Bixey, and with Dr. Bixey entered the tomb, remaining a few minutes, during which time the guard reclosed the lines in front.

Mrs. McKinley appeared to be quite as strong walking to and from the carriage as she was when she left the carriage. The West Lawn cemetery, where Mrs. McKinley and the late president often did when in Canton, while they were there the gates and the approach to the vault were temporarily closed. Mrs. McKinley was assisted from the carriage by Dr. Bixey, and with Dr. Bixey entered the tomb, remaining a few minutes, during which time the guard reclosed the lines in front.

STORMED THE WALLS.

Party of 40,000 People Attacked Chino, China—Many Killed on Both Sides.

Tacoma, Wash., Sept. 21.—A party of 40,000 people stormed the walls of Chino, China, September 2 because the Chinese had been too exacting in their demands. The Spanish war, Capt. C. M. Chester, who commanded the cruiser Cincinnati; Maj. Thomas N. Wood, of the marine corps, who was in command of the Chinese, the Massachusetts, and Comander Giles R. Herber, who was executive officer of the Texas, the latter being on the stand when the court adjourned. The attendance of the public was small.

MARINES ON GUARD

All Save Members of the Court of Inquiry and Witnesses Were Barred.

ADM. DEWEY WAS PROMPTLY ON TIME.

Four Witnesses Were Examined, Capt. Higginson, of the Massachusetts, Being the First.

All Irrelevant Questions and Hasty Evidence Will Be Cut Out

—This Will Shorten the Term of the Court.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The Schley court of inquiry reconvened, and four wifewomen adjourned examined four witnesses.

Maries were on guard at the railing and before the court opened, barred out all save members of the court. Later Judge Adams General Lemly arranged to allow members of the press association within the railing.

The most important incident of the day was the decision of the court withdrawing a question put by the court itself, asking it to give him on the subject a plain and simple answer.

The witness was Mr. Adm. Higginson, who participated in the Santiago campaign as captain of the battleship Massachusetts. This vessel at one time was part of the flying squadron, commanded by Commodore Schley, and he was given the rank of captain. All possible measures were taken to capture or destroy the Spanish vessel Cristobal Colon as it lay in Santiago harbor from May 27 to June 1, 1898. Course for Adm. Schley objected to the question on the ground that a reply would involve an opinion and no such opinion could be given. Lemly admitted that the precedents were against questions of this character, and the court with drew this interrogatory.

Witnesses Admonished.

It is generally admitted that this decision will have the effect of materially shortening the term of the trial, as will also the court's insistence on a plain and simple answer to all hearsay testimony.

In several cases the witnesses were admonished to relate only events coming within their own observation.

Adm. Dewey showed himself a prompt and methodical presiding officer. He called the court to order exactly as he did when he presided over it, and at precisely 4 o'clock.

The witnesses Friday were Dr. Adm. Higginson, who commanded the battleship Massachusetts during the Spanish war; Capt. C. M. Chester, who commanded the cruiser Cincinnati; Maj. Thomas N. Wood, of the marine corps, who was in command of the Chinese, the Massachusetts, and Comander Giles R. Herber, who was executive officer of the Texas, the latter being on the stand when the court adjourned. The attendance of the public was small.

No Objection to Adm. Ramsey.

Capt. Lemly introduced as evidence a copy of the senate document relating to the Sampson-Harrison controversy, together with hydrographic office charts showing the scenes of the campaign.

"Now I will offer," said Capt. Lemly, "a chart showing the positions of the vessels of Santiago."

He then offered to the court a blue print of the chart, 3 by 3 feet.

"I object," spoke up Capt. Parker of Schley's counsel, quickly. "The chart is grossly incorrect. It places the coast line six miles further south and four miles further west than it is in fact."

"The chart does not prove anything," explained Capt. Lemly, "it is not put as evidence, but for reference."

Capt. Lemly, the judge advocate general, then read the order of the navy department, appointing Adm. Ramsey to preside over the court.

"I ask you, Adm. Schley, if you have any objection to any member of this court," said Capt. Lemly.

"I have not," replied Adm. Schley.

Capt. Lemly then swore in the members of the court, the three bending forward, and each grasping a small bell.

Capt. Lemly was himself sworn in by Adm. Dewey, and in turn administered the oath to the clerk and reporter of the court.

The Cable Completed.

Washington, Sept. 21.—The signal office of the war department Friday received a message from Manila saying that the last link of cable had been laid which allowed telegraph communication with the southeastern portion of the Philippines. Previous messages had to be carried across a point about the middle of the group by boat.

Fire in the Business Portion.

Atherton, Kan., Sept. 21.—Almost the entire business part of Atherton, 20 miles west of here, was wiped out by fire, over a dozen buildings, including Woverton's general store and the National Washington Machine Co.'s factory being destroyed. Estimated loss, $30,000. Origin of fire unknown.

Prince Charming Honored.

Danzie, Sept. 21.—Emperor William has conferred the Grand Cross of the Order of the Red Eagle upon Prince Chuan, head of the Chinese mission of explanation for the murder of Baron Von Ketteler.

KENTUCKY'S CONTRIBUTION.

The Floral Tribute From This District Given Place of Honor.

A dispatch from Canton says the place of honor in the floral decorations at the funeral of President McKinley at the Methodist Church was given to a beautiful wreath of American Beauty roses, eight feet in diameter, sent by the Federal employees of the Seventh Internal Revenue District of Kentucky and the Postoffices at Lexington, Frankfort, Maysville and Midway.

It was the most magnificent floral piece seen at the funeral in Washington and Canton, and was surrounded by hundreds of the most elaborate floral creations sent by foreign Governments, politicians and other persons devoted friends of the late President.

The Lexington wreath was the central piece in the flower design, filling the pulpit, the chancel and choir loft, and formed a frame to the large draped portrait of the President immediately below it in front of the raised pulpit from which the services were conducted.

Kentucky's floral tribute was universally admired for its taste, simplicity of design and gorgeous wealth of flowers.

There is more Cancer in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. The disease has been greatly protracted. It is a local disease, and prescribed drugs remain, and by constantly failing to cure with local remedies, produced incurable disease. It was caused to be a local disease by the fact that it was not removed by the body, and the body did not remove it.

The boat Robert Taylor, which was recently built by a person of that name at his ways at Higginport, has been sold to Captain Moon Pickleman, who is now master of the Great Western Coal Company of Pittsburgh for $100,000.
